विषय:- कारण बताओ सूचना/ Proceeding initiated against Show Cause Notice F.No. STC/15-165/OA/2021-22 dated 23.04.2021 issued to M/s Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil, Flat No.19, Devashish Apartment, Sterling City, Bopal, Ahmedabad, Gujarat-380058.

BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE :-

M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil, Flat No.19, Devashish Apartment, Sterling City, Bopal , Ahmedabad , Gujarat – 380 058 (hereinafter referred to as “the said assessee” for the sake of brevity) are engaged in providing services and for the same was registered with Service Tax Department having Service Tax Registration No. ALCPG8795KSD001.

2. An analysis of “Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)”, the “Total Amount Paid/Credited under 194C, 194H, 194I, 194J” and “Gross value of Services Provided” was undertaken by the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the F.Y. 2015-16 TO 2016-17, and details of said analysis was shared by the CBDT with the Central Board of Indirect Taxes (CBIC).

3. As per the records available with this office, on going through the Third party Data received from CBDT of the said assessee for the F.Y. 2015-16 TO 2016-17, the Sales/Gross Receipt from Services (Value from ITR) were not tallied with Gross.Value of Service Provided, as declared in ST-3 Return of the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2016-17. It appeared that the said assessee had declared less/not declared any taxable value in their Service Tax Return (ST-3) for the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2016-17 as compared to the Service related taxable value declared in their Income Tax Return (ITR)/Form 26AS for the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2016-17. The details of difference as per CBDT data for the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2016-17 are as under :

Sr. No.	Financial Year	VALUE DIFFERENCE in ITR & STR / TDS & STR) (Whichever is higher) (in Rs.)	Service Tax (in Rs.)
1	2015-16	43402607	6055507
2	2016-17	55594100	8292659
	Total	98996707	14348167

Therefore, the said assessee had less discharged their Service Tax liability and thus was liable to pay Service tax including Cess amounting to Rs.1,43,48,167/- on the differential value amounting to Rs. 9,89,96,707/- along with applicable interest and penalty for the F.Y.2015-16 to 2016-17.

4. As per the provisions of Section 72 of the Finance Act, if any person, liable to pay service tax having made a return, fails to assess the tax, the Central Excise Officer, may require the person to produce such accounts, documents or other evidence as he may deem necessary and after taking into account all the relevant material which is available or which he has gathered, shall by an order in writing, after giving the person an opportunity of being heard, make the assessment of the value of taxable service to the best of his judgment and determine the sum payable by the assessee on the basis of such assessment.

5. As per the provisions of Section 73(1) of the Finance Act where any service tax has not been levied or paid or has been short levied or short paid by the reasons of willful mis-statement or suppression of facts with intent to evade payment of service tax, the Central Excise Officer may within five years from the relevant date, serve notice on the person chargeable with service tax which has not been levied or paid of which has been short levied or short paid requiring him to show cause why he should not pay amount specified in the notice.

6. As per Rule 6 of the Service tax Rules, 1994, the service tax shall be paid to the credit of the Central Government by 5th day of the month, immediately following the said calendar month in which the payments are received, towards the value of taxable service. Rule 7 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994 stipulates that assessee shall submit their service tax returns in the form of ST-3 within the prescribed time.

7. From the foregoing paras, it appears that the said assessee had failed to pay/short paid/deposit service tax to the extent of Rs. 1,43,48,167/- on the difference of taxable value during the period 2015-16 to 2016-17 by declaring less value in their ST-3 Returns vis-a-s their ITR/Form 26AS, in such manner and within such period prescribed in respect of taxable services received/provided by them with an intent to evade payment of service tax. Thus, it appears that the said assessee have failed to discharge the service tax liability of Rs. 1,43,48,167/- (inclusive of applicable Cess i.e., EC, SHEC, SBC & KKC) worked out on value of Rs.9,89,96,707/- and therefore, service tax is required to be demanded/recovered from them under Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Section 68 of the Finance Act, 1994.

8. In view of above, it appeared that the said assessee had contravened the provisions of :

- (a) Section 66 of the Finance Act, 1994 in as much as they have failed to collect and pay the service tax as detailed above, to the credit of Central Government.
- (b) Section 68 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 6 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994, as amended, in as much as they have not paid the service tax as mentioned above to the credit of the Government of India within the stipulated time limit;
- (c) Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 7 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994, as amended, in as much as they had failed to properly assess their Service Tax liability under Rule 2(1)(d) of Service Tax Rules; 1994 and failed to declare correct value of taxable services as well as exempted services to the department in the prescribed return in Form ST-3.

9. It has been noticed that at no point of time, the said assessee has disclosed full, true and correct information about the value of the services provided by them or intimated to the Department regarding receipt/providing of Service of the differential value that has come to the notice of the Department only after going through the Third Party CBDT data generated for the Financial Year 2015-16 to 2016-17. The Government has from the very beginning placed full trust on the service providers and accordingly measures like self-assessment etc., based on mutual trust and confidence are in place. From the evidences, it appeared that the said assessee has knowingly suppressed the facts regarding receipt of/providing of services by them worth the differential value as can be seen in the table hereinabove and thereby not paid/short paid/not deposited Service Tax thereof to the extent of Rs.

1,43,48,167/- . Thus, it appeared that there was a deliberate withholding of essential and material information from the department about service provided and value realized by them. It appeared that all these material information had been concealed from the department deliberately, consciously and purposefully to evade payment of service tax.

10. As per Section 75 ibid every person liable to pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 68, or rules made there under, who fails to credit the tax or any part thereof to the account of the Central Government within the period prescribed, is liable to pay simple interest (as such rate not below ten per cent and not exceeding thirty six per cent per annum, as is for the time being fixed by the Central Government, by Notification in the Official Gazette) for the period by which such crediting of the tax or any part thereof is delayed. It appeared that the said assessee had short paid/non-payment of Service Tax of Rs.1,43,48,167/- on the actual value received towards taxable services provided which appeared to be recoverable under proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act alongwith interest under Section 75 ibid not paid by them under Section 68 of the Finance Act read with Rule 6 of Service Tax Rules, 1994 inasmuch as the said assessee had suppressed the facts to the department and contravened the provisions with an intent to evade payment of Service Tax. The said assessee had not discharged their Service tax liability and hence was liable to pay interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act.

11. All the above acts of contravention on the part of the said assessee resulted into non-payment of Service Tax appeared to have been committed by way of suppression of material facts and contravention of provisions of Finance Act, 1994 with an intent to evade payment of service tax as discussed in the foregoing paras and therefore, the said amount of service tax amounting to Rs. 1,43,48,167/- (inclusive of applicable Cess i.e., EC, SHEC, SBC & KKC) not paid was required to be demanded and recovered from them under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 alongwith Interest thereof at appropriate rate under the provisions of Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.

12. All these acts of contravention of the provisions of Section 67, Section 68 and Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 6 & Rule 7 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994 appeared to be punishable under the provisions of Section 76 and 77 of the Finance Act, 1994 as amended from time to time. In view of the above, it appeared that the said assessee had contravened the provisions of Finance Act, 1994 and the rules made there under. All the contraventions and violations made by the said assessee appeared to have rendered themselves liable to penalty under Section 76 & Section 77 of the Finance Act.

13. Moreover, in addition to the contravention, omission and commission on the part of the said assessee as stated in the foregoing paras, it appeared that the said assessee had willfully suppressed the facts, nature and value of service provided by them with an intent to evade the payment of service tax rendering themselves liable for penalty under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

14. The said assessee was given opportunity to appear for pre show cause consultation. The pre show cause consultation was fixed on 23.04.2021 but the said assessee did not appear for the same.

15. Therefore, Show Cause Notice bearing F.No.STC/15-165/OA/21-22 dated 23.04.2021 was issued to M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil to show cause as to why:

(i) Differential amount of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 1,43,48,167/- (inclusive of Edu. Cess and S&H Edu. Cess) short paid/not paid by them, should not be confirmed/demanded under proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

(ii) interest at the appropriate rates should not be recovered from them as prescribed under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 from the due date on which the Service Tax was liable to be paid till the date on which the said Service Tax is paid.

(iii) penalty should not be imposed upon them under Section 76 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the failure to make payment of service tax payable by them within prescribed time-limit.

(iv) penalty should not be imposed upon them under Section 77 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the failure to assess the correct tax liability.

(vi) penalty should not be imposed upon them under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 as amended for suppressing and not disclosing the value of the said taxable service provided by them before the department with an intent to evade payment of service tax.

DEFENCE REPLY

16. In response to Show Cause Notice dated 23.04.2021, the said assessee has filed reply dated 26.05.2022 wherein they stated that the assessee is the proprietor of M/s. Shree Ganesh Tours & Travels and she is wife of Shri Jayendrasinh Gohil, who has handling and managing and taking decision in business. Further, they submitted that they had not submitted any documents during the FY 2021-22 because their accounting software was crashed due to electricity issue and their accounting data was wiped out. Therefore he had not applied for & paid service tax for the FY 2015-16 & 2016-17 and had not come for hearing. They further stated that Shri Jayendrabhai, the person looking after the business is in jail and therefore requested more time to file reply. Vide letter dated 06.10.2022, they further stated that the entire business is run by her husband and he is still in jail and expect that he will get bail and requested 3 months time for reply.

PERSONAL HEARING

17. Personal Hearing in this case has been granted to the said assessee on 19.05.2022, 06.10.2022, 04.11.2022, 08.09.2023, 13.10.2023, 26.10.2023 and 09.11.2023. However, neither the assessee nor the authorised representative attended the P.H. On verification, with data of postal department, it was noticed that the P.H. Notices were duly delivered in their premises, however the assessee did not turned up for P.H. deliberately. As the assessee was given seven opportunities of personal hearing, but they neither availed any of these opportunities, nor filed any submissions in response to

SCN, I am therefore bound to decide the case on the basis of the available facts on record.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

18. The proceedings under the provisions of the Finance Act, 1994 and Service Tax Rules, 1994 framed there under are saved by Section 174(2) of the Central Goods & Service Tax Act, 2017 and accordingly I am proceeding further.

19. I have carefully gone through the records of the case. I find that the said assessee has not filed any reply to the above mentioned show cause notice. I further find that ample opportunity of personal hearing was given to the said assessee however, they have not availed the same to defend their case. Therefore, I am proceeding to decide the case ex-parte based upon the records available with this office.

20. In this connection, I find that Hon'ble Supreme Court, High Courts and Tribunals, in several judgments/decision, have held that ex-parte decision will not amount to violation of principles of Natural Justice, when sufficient opportunities for personal hearing have been given for defending the case. In support of the same, I rely upon the following judgments/orders as under:-

a) Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in the case of UNITED OIL MILLS Vs. COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS & C. EX., COCHIN reported in 2000 (124) E.L.T. 53 (Ker.), has observed that;

"Natural justice - Petitioner given full opportunity before Collector to produce all evidence on which he intends to rely but petitioner not prayed for any opportunity to adduce further evidence - Principles of natural justice not violated.

(Emphasis Supplied)"

b) Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in the case of KUMAR JAGDISH CH. SINHA Vs. COLLECTOR OF CENTRAL EXCISE, CALCUTTA reported in 2000 (124) E.L.T. 118 (Cal.) in Civil Rule No. 128 (W) of 1961, deciding on 13-9-1963, has observed that;

"Natural justice - Show cause notice - Hearing - Demand - Principles of natural justice not violated when, before making the levy under Rule 9 of Central Excise Rules, 1944, the assessee was issued a show cause notice, his reply considered, and he was also given a personal hearing in support of his reply - Section 33 of Central Excises & Salt Act, 1944. - It has been established both in England and in India [vide N.P.T. Co. v. N.S.T. Co. (1957) S.C.R. 98 (106)], that there is no universal code of natural justice and that the nature of hearing required would depend, inter alia, upon the provisions of the statute and the rules made thereunder which govern the constitution of a particular body. It has also been established that where the relevant statute is silent, what is required is a minimal level of hearing, namely, that the statutory authority must 'act in good faith and fairly listen to both sides' [Board of Education v. Rice, (1911) A.C. 179] and, "deal with the question referred to them without bias, and give to each of the parties the opportunity of adequately presenting the case" [Local Govt. Board v. Arlidge, (1915) A.C. 120 (132)]. [para 16]

(Emphasis supplied)"

(c) Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of SAKETH INDIA LIMITED Vs. UNION OF INDIA reported in 2002 (143) E.L.T. 274 (Del.), has observed that:

"Natural justice - Ex parte order by DGFT - EXIM Policy - Proper opportunity given to appellant to reply to show cause notice issued by Addl. DGFT and to make oral submissions, if any, but opportunity not availed by appellant - Principles of natural justice not violated by Additional DGFT in passing ex parte order - Para 2.8(c) of Export-Import Policy 1992-97 - Section 5 of Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992.

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(d) The Hon'ble CESTAT, Mumbai in the case of GOPINATH CHEM TECH. LTD Vs. COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL EXCISE, AHMEDABAD-II reported in 2004 (171) E.L.T. 412 (Tri. - Mumbai), has observed that;

"Natural justice - Personal hearing fixed by lower authorities but not attended by appellant and reasons for not attending also not explained - Appellant cannot now demand another hearing - Principles of natural justice not violated. [para 5]

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(e) The Hon'ble Supreme court in the case of F.N. ROY Versus COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, CALCUTTA AND OTHERS reported in 1983 (13) E.L.T. 1296 (S.C.), has observed as under:

"Natural justice — Opportunity of personal hearing not availed of—Effect — Confiscation order cannot be held mala fide if passed without hearing. - If the petitioner was given an opportunity of being heard before the confiscation order but did not avail of, it was not open for him to contend subsequently that he was not given an opportunity of personal hearing before an order was passed. [para 28]

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(f) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of JETHMAL Versus UNION OF INDIA reported in 1999 (110) E.L.T. 379 (S.C.), has observed as under;

"7. Our attention was also drawn to a recent decision of this Court in A.K. Kripak v. Union of India - 1969 (2) SCC 340, where some of the rules of natural justice were formulated in Paragraph 20 of the judgment. One of these is the well known principle of audi alteram partem and it was argued that an ex parte hearing without notice violated this rule. In our opinion this rule can have no application to the facts of this case where the appellant was asked not only to send a written reply but to inform the Collector whether he wished to be heard in person or through a representative. If no reply was given or no intimation was sent to the Collector that a personal hearing was desired, the Collector would be justified in thinking that the persons notified did not desire to appear before him when the case was to be considered and could not be blamed if he were to proceed on the material before him on the basis of the allegations in the show cause notice. Clearly he could not compel appearance before him and giving a further notice in a case like this that the matter would be dealt with on a certain day would be an ideal formality."

21. I observe that after introduction of new system of taxation of services in negative list regime w.e.f. 01.07.2012, any activity carried out by a person for another person for a consideration is taxable service except those services specified in the negative list or exempt list by virtue of mega exemption notification or covered under exclusion clauses provided under the meaning of "service" as per Section 65B(44) of Finance Act, 1944. The term "Service" has been defined under Section 65B (44) of the Finance Act, 1994 ('Act') as under:

"service" means any activity carried out by a person for another for consideration, and includes a declared service"

The term "Taxable Service" has been defined under Section 65B (51) of the Act as under:

"taxable service" means any service on which service tax is leviable under section 66B

Section 66B provides for levy of service tax, which reads as under:

SECTION [66B. Charge of service tax on and after Finance Act, 2012. — There shall be levied a tax (hereinafter referred to as the service tax) at the rate of [fourteen per cent.] on the value of all services, other than those services specified in the negative list, provided or agreed to be provided in the taxable territory by one person to another and collected in such manner as may be prescribed.

22. I find that prior to 01.07.2012 i.e. before introduction of a new system of taxation of services, the tax was levied on services of specified description only, as provided under Section 66 (in force at the material time) of the Act. In other words, the service tax was levied on services of specific description provided under the statute. The new taxation system of services had widened the scope of levy of tax on services without specific description of service. Accordingly, any activity carried out by a person for another person in lieu of the consideration is "service" and is liable to service tax unless it is covered under negative list of services or exempt services under mega exemption notification or covered under exclusion clauses of "service".

23. As per the SCN, the said assessee is registered with department and is having the Reg. No. ALCPG8795KSD001 and are engaged in providing taxable services without paying any service tax and filing the required ST 3 Returns for the period under reference. As per the facts of the case, in order to verify whether the said noticee have discharged their Service Tax liability properly, the said assessee was given an opportunity to appear for pre show cause notice consultation which was fixed on 23.04.2021, but the assessee did not turned up for the same. I further find that after issuance of SCN dated 23.04.2021, the assessee has not filed any proper reply to SCN within 30 days as required in the SCN. Further the assessee was also did not turn up for the P.H given on specified dates. Further, the said assessee neither submitted any details /documents explaining such difference nor responded to the letters in any manner. As per SCN, the said assessee has not filed ST-3 returns for the SCN period.

24. In the instant case, the Service tax payable of Rs.1,43,48,167/- is arrived at on the basis of value difference between value of services from ITR/26AS FY 2015-16 & 2016-17 of Rs.9,89,96,707/-. By considering the said amount as taxable income, the service tax liability of Rs. 1,43,48,167/- is calculated as tabulated as TABLE A at Para 3.

25. A taxable person is required to provide information/documents to the department as and when required. However, in this case the assessee failed to furnish/provide the required documents in support of their claim to prove that they are not liable to service tax being the service tax provider. Even during the course of personnel hearing also the assessee failed to submit any documents proving that they are eligible for exemption from payment of service tax or abatement of value for the purpose of calculating service tax liability. In view of the above facts, it is proved that the assessee may not have the data of the service receivers or they might have been try to avoid furnishing the details which may have lead to proof that the service provider is liable to pays service tax.

26. Further, they had not claimed any exemption for the said charges collected and provisions of the 'taxable services' during the aforesaid period nor did they have sought any specific clarification from the jurisdictional Service Tax assessing authorities regarding the applicability of Service Tax on the services of the same covering the period of this notice. In view of the specific omissions and commissions as elaborated earlier, it is apparent that the assessee had deliberately suppressed the facts of provision of the Taxable Service in the ST-3 Returns during the relevant period. Consequently, this amounts to mis-declaration and wilful suppression of facts with the deliberate intent to evade payment of Service Tax.

27. I further find that M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasih Gohil had contravened the various provisions of Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994 and the Service Tax Rules, 1994 with intent to evade payment of Service Tax in respect of "taxable Services" as defined under the provisions of Section 65B (51) of Finance Act, 1994, provided by them to their various service receivers during the period FY 2015-16 & FY 2016-17:

28. All the above acts of contravention of the various provisions of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time, and Rules framed there under, on the part of the assessee has been committed by way of suppression of facts with an intent to evade payment of service tax and, therefore, the said service tax not paid is required to be demanded and recovered from them under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time, by invoking extended period of five years along with applicable interest. All these acts of contravention of the provisions of Section 67, 68 & 70 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time read with Rules 6 and 7 of the erstwhile Service Tax Rules, 1994 on part of assessee have rendered them for penal action under the provisions of Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time.

29. Further, as per Section 75 ibid, every person liable to pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 68 ibid, or rules made there under, who fails to credit the tax or any part thereof to the account of the Central Government within the prescribed period is liable to pay the interest at the applicable rate of interest. Since the service provider has failed to pay their Service Tax liabilities in the prescribed time limit, they are liable to pay the said amount along with interest. Thus, the said Service Tax is required to be recovered from the assessee along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994:

30. All above acts of contravention constitute an offence of the nature as described under the provision of Section 77 of the Act, rendering themselves liable to penalty under Section 77 of the Finance Act, 1994, for failure to provide documents/details for further verification in a manner as provided under Section 77 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994

31. As far as imposition of penalty u/s.78 of Finance Act, 1994 is concerned, on perusal of the facts of the case and in view of the above discussion, I find that this is a fit case to levy penalty under section 78 of Finance Act, 1994 as they failed to pay the correct duty with the intent to evade the same. It is also a fact that they had deliberately not shown in their ST-3 Returns, the actual service provision rendered by them and service tax involved thereon, with intent to evade the proper payment of service tax on its due date, but on verification of data received from CBDT these facts would have not come to light. They have never informed the Service Tax department about the actual provision of taxable services so provided by them to their service recipients during the relevant time and they have also not shown the aforesaid actual provision of taxable service provided them, in respective ST-3 returns filed by them at the relevant period. The assessee have thus, willfully suppressed the actual provision of taxable service provided by them with an intent to evade the Service Tax. It, thus, found that the assessee, as a service provider, deliberately suppressed the actual provision of the taxable services provided by them, from the Jurisdictional Service Tax Authority and failed to determine and pay the due Service Tax with an intention to evade payment of Service Tax in contravention of the various provisions of the Finance Act, 1994 and Rules made thereunder, as discussed hereinabove. Hence I find that this is a fit case to impose penalty u/s.78 of Finance Act, 1994.

32. In view of facts stated hereinabove, the Value of Services mentioned/declared in ITR/Form 26AS for Financial Year 2015-16 & 2016-17 is considered as taxable Value of Services provided and since the said assessee has not provided any details/data and the reasons for non-payment of service tax, therefore, the exact Service Tax liability cannot be adjudged. Therefore, for calculation and demand of the Service Tax under this notice, the value of services declared/mentioned in Form 26AS filed by the assessee has been considered for non-payment of total service tax, which comes to Rs. 1,43,48,167/- including cess for Financial Year F.Y. 2015-16 & 2016-17.

33. Further the onus is on the assessee to prove that they are eligible for any exemption Notification. In this connection the Hon"ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Commissioner of Central Excise New Delhi Vs. Hari Chand Shri Gopal reported in 2010(260) ELT 3 (sc) clarified that the person claims exemption or concession has to establish that he is entitled to that exemption or concession. The relevant portion of the order is reproduced as under:

"22. The law is well settled that a person who claims exemption or concession has to establish that he is entitled to that exemption or concession. A provision providing for an exemption, concession or exception, as the case may be, has to be construed strictly with certain exceptions depending upon the settings on which the provision has been placed in the Statute and the object and purpose to be achieved. If exemption is available on complying with certain conditions, the conditions have to be complied with. The mandatory requirements of those conditions must be obeyed or fulfilled exactly, though at times, some latitude can be shown, if there is a failure to comply with some requirements which are directory in nature, the non-compliance of which would not affect the essence or substance of the notification granting exemption. In Novopan Indian Ltd. (supra), this Court held that a person, invoking an exception or exemption provisions, to relieve him of tax liability must establish clearly that he is covered by the said provisions and, in case of doubt or ambiguity, the benefit of it must go to the State. A Constitution Bench of this Court in Hansraj Gordhandas v. H.H. Dave - (1996) 2 SCR 253, held that such a notification has to be interpreted in the light of the words employed by it and not on any other basis. This was so held in the context of the principle that in a taxing statute, there is no room for any intendment, that regard must be had to the clear meaning of the words and that the matter should be governed wholly by the language of the notification, i.e., by the plain terms of the exemption." . Here in the instant case the assessee failed to prove that they are eligible for the exemption Notifications.

34. The government has from the very beginning placed full trust on the service tax assessee so far as service tax is concerned and accordingly measures like self-assessments etc., based on mutual trust and confidence are in place. All these operate on the basis of honesty of the service tax assessee; therefore, the governing statutory provisions create an absolute liability, when any provision is contravened or there is a breach of trust, on the part of service tax assessee, no matter how innocently. From the information/data received from CBDT, it appeared that the assessee has not discharged service tax liability in spite of declaring before Income Tax Department. Non-payment of service tax is utter disregard to the requirements of law and the breach of trust deposited on them which is outright act of defiance of law by way of suppression, concealment & non-furnishing value of taxable service with intent to evade payment of service tax. All the above facts of contravention on the part of the service provider have been committed with an intention to evade the payment of service tax by suppressing the facts. Therefore, service tax of Rs. 1,43,48,167/- not paid by the assessee worked out in Tables supra for F Y 2016-17 is required to be recovered from them under Section 73 (1) of Finance Act, 1994 by invoking extended period of five years under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

35. Various Courts including the Apex Court have clearly laid down the principle that tax liability is a civil obligation and therefore, the intent to evade payment of tax cannot be established by peering into the minds of the tax payer, but has to be established through evaluation of tax behaviour. The said assessee deliberately not supplied their documents, the actual service provisions rendered by them and service tax involved thereon, with intent to evade the proper payment of service tax on its due date, but only after going through the CBDT data these facts would have come to light. The said assessee himself admits in their reply to SCN that they were provided various services. Moreover, the Hon'ble apex court in the case of Rajasthan Spinning and Weaving Mills / High Court of Gujarat at Ahmedabad in Tax Appeal No. 338 of 2009 in the case of Commissioner of Central Excise, Surat-I Vs. Neminath Fabrics Pvt. Ltd. dated 22.04.2010 has made the following observations regarding applicability of the extended period in different situations.

"11. A plain reading of sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act indicates that the provision is applicable in a case where any duty of excise has either not been levied/paid or has been short levied/short paid, or wrongly refunded, regardless of the fact that such non-levy etc. is on the basis of any approval, acceptance or assessment relating to the rate of duty or valuation under any of the provisions of the Act or Rules thereunder and at that stage it would be open to the Central Excise Officer, in exercise of his discretion to serve the show cause notice on the person chargeable to such duty within one year from the relevant date.

12. The Proviso under the said sub-section stipulates that in case of such non-levy, etc. of duty which is by reason of fraud, collusion, or any mis-statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any provisions of the Act or the rules made there under, the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act shall have effect as if the words one year have been substituted by the words five years.

13. The Explanation which follows stipulates that where service of notice has been stayed by an order of a Court, the period of such stay shall be excluded from computing the aforesaid period of one year or five years, as the case may be.

14. Thus the scheme that unfolds is that in case of non-levy where there is no fraud, collusion, etc., it is open to the Central Excise Officer to issue a show cause notice for recovery of duty of excise which has not been levied, etc. The show cause notice for recovery has to be served within one year from the relevant date. However, where fraud, collusion, etc., stands established the period within which the show cause notice has to be served stands enlarged by substitution of the words one year by the words five years. In other words the show cause notice for recovery of such duty of excise not levied etc., can be served within five years from the relevant date.

15. To put it differently, the proviso merely provides for a situation where under the provisions of sub-section (1) are recast by the legislature itself extending the period within which the show cause notice for recovery of duty of excise not levied etc. gets enlarged. This position becomes clear when one reads the Explanation in the said sub-section which only says that the period stated as to service of notice shall be excluded in computing the aforesaid period of one year or five years as the case may be.

16. The termini from which the period of one year or five years has to be computed is the relevant date which has been defined in sub-section (3)(ii) of section 11A of the Act. A plain reading of the said definition shows that the concept of knowledge by the departmental authority is entirely absent. Hence, if one imports such concept in sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act or the proviso thereunder it would tantamount to rewriting the statutory provision and no canon of interpretation permits such an exercise by any Court. If it is not open to the superior court to either add or substitute words in a statute such right cannot be available to a statutory Tribunal.

17. The proviso cannot be read to mean that because there is knowledge the suppression which stands established disappears. Similarly the concept of reasonable period of limitation which is sought to be read into the provision by some of the orders of the Tribunal also cannot be permitted in law when the statute itself has provided for a fixed period of limitation. It is equally well settled that it is not open to the Court while reading a provision to either rewrite the period of limitation or curtail the prescribed period of limitation.

18. The Proviso comes into play only when suppression etc. is established or stands admitted. It would differ from a case where fraud, etc. are merely alleged and are disputed by an assessee. Hence, by no stretch of imagination the concept of knowledge can be read into the provisions because that would tantamount to rendering the defined term relevant date nugatory and such an interpretation is not permissible.

19. The language employed in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 11A, is clear and unambiguous and makes it abundantly clear that moment there is non-levy or short levy etc. of central excise duty with intention to evade payment of duty for any of the reasons specified thereunder, the proviso would come into operation and the period of limitation would stand extended from one year to five years. This is the only requirement of the provision. Once it is found that the ingredients of the proviso are satisfied, all that has to be seen as to what is the relevant date and as to whether the show cause notice has been served within a period of five years therefrom.

20. Thus, what has been prescribed under the statute is that upon the reasons stipulated under the proviso being satisfied, the period of limitation for service of show cause notice under sub-section (1) of section 11A, stands extended to five years from the relevant date. The period cannot by reason of any decision of a Court or even by subordinate legislation be either curtailed or enhanced. In the present case as well as in the decisions on which reliance has been placed by the learned advocate for the respondent, the Tribunal has introduced a novel concept of date of knowledge and has imported into the proviso a new period of limitation of six months from the date of knowledge. The reasoning appears to be that once knowledge has been acquired by the department there is no suppression and as such the ordinary statutory period of limitation prescribed under sub-section (1) of section 11A would be applicable. However, such reasoning appears to be fallacious in as much as once the suppression is admitted, merely because the department acquires knowledge of the irregularities the suppression would not be obliterated.

21. It may be noticed that where the statute does not prescribe a period of limitation, the Apex Court as well as this Court have imported the concept of reasonable period and have held that where the statute does not provide for a period of limitation, action has to be taken within a reasonable time. However, in a case like the present one, where the statute itself prescribes a period of limitation the question of importing the concept of reasonable period does not arise at all as that would mean that the Court is substituting the period of limitation prescribed by the legislature, which is not permissible in law.

22. The Apex Court in the case of Rajasthan Spinning and Weaving Mills (supra) has held thus :

"From sub-section 1 read with its proviso it is clear that in case the short payment, non payment, erroneous refund of duty is unintended and not attributable to fraud, collusion or any willful mis-statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any of the provisions of the Act or of the rules made under it with intent to evade payment of duty then the Revenue can give notice for recovery of the duty to the person in default within one year from the relevant date (defined in sub-section 3). In other words, in the absence of any element of deception or malpractice the recovery of duty can only be for a period not exceeding one year. But in case the non-payment etc. of duty is intentional and by adopting any means as indicated in the proviso then the period of notice and a priori the period for which duty can be demanded gets extended to five years."

23. This decision would be applicable on all fours to the facts of the present case, viz. when non-payment etc. of duty is intentional and by adopting any of the means indicated in the proviso, then the period of notice gets extended to five years."

In view of the above facts, the extended period is correctly invoked while issuing this Show Cause Notice. On perusal of SCN, I further find that the SCN has not questioned the taxability on any income other than the income from sale of services. I therefore refrain from discussing the taxability on other income other than the said income.

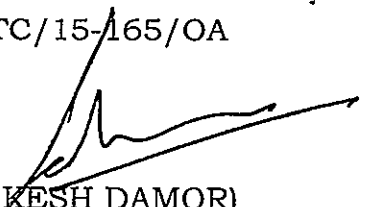

36. In the instant SCN penalties under section 76 and 78 have been proposed. However, penalty under Section 76 and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 cannot be imposed simultaneously. The Finance Act, 2008 (18 of 2008) which came into force from 10-5-2008, the Parliament has made the legal position clear by introducing a proviso to Section 78. Therefore, as per the prevailing provisions of law, penalty can be imposed either under Section 76 or Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 w.e.f 10.05.2008. As I propose to impose penalty u/s.78 of the Finance Act, 1994, I refrain from imposing any penalty u/s.76 of Finance Act, 1994 in this case.

37. In view of the above facts and findings, I pass the following order.

ORDER

1. I confirm the demand of Service Tax of Rs.1,43,48,167/- (including cess) (Rupees One Crore Forty Three Lakhs Forty Eight Thousand One Hundred Sixty Seven only), which was not paid/short paid during the Financial Years 2015-16 & 2016-17 as per Table supra and order to recover from them under proviso to Sub-section (1) of Section 73 of Finance Act,1994;.
2. I confirm the demand of Interest at the appropriate rate and order to recover from them for the period of delay of payment of service tax mentioned at (i) above under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;
3. I impose penalty of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) on M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil under Section 77 of the Finance Act, 1994 as discussed.
4. I impose Penalty of Rs.1,43,48,167/- (including cess) (Rupees One Crore Forty Three Lakhs Forty Eight Thousand One Hundred Sixty Seven only), under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended on M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil. I further order that in terms of Section 78 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 if M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil pays the amount of Service Tax as determined at Sl. No. (1) above and interest payable thereon at (2) above within thirty days of the date of communication of this order, the amount of penalty liable to be paid by M/s.Pravinaba Jayendrasinh Gohil shall be twenty-five per cent of the penalty imposed subject to the condition that such reduced penalty is also paid within the period so specified.

35. Accordingly the Show Cause Notice bearing F.No. STC/15-165/OA / 2021-22 dated 23.04.2021 is disposed off.
