ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Dhruv Piyushbhai Sompura, 15, Aman Bunglow, B/H Shyam Bunglow, Bopal, Ahmedabad - 380058 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") against Order-in-Original No. GST-06/D-VI/O & A/596/DHRUV/AM/2022-23 dated 17.02.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division VI, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant are holding PAN No. CDYPS7478H. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2015-16, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 15,24,850/- during the F.Y. 2015-16, which was reflected under the heads "Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)" filed with the Income Tax department. Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued a Show Cause Notice No. CGST-06/04-937/O& A/DHRUV-VI/2020-21 dated 24.03.2021 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,12,746/- for the period FY 2015-16, under provisions of Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 76, Section 77(1) and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of late fee under Rule 7C of the service tax Rules, 1994 read with section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994 for each ST-3 late filed.

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 2,12,746/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period FY 2015-16. Further, (i) Penalty of Rs. 2,12,746/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Late Fee of Rs. 20,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 70 of the Finance Act, 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant submitted that due to change in administration, there was a delay in obtaining details for the subject period and therefore they filed appeal 08 days late. The appellant submitted that he is proprietor and carrying out business in relation to trading work. During the concerned Financial year, appellant has earned income from Khakhra Sale. The show cause notice which is issued on the basis of income tax return, has not been received by appellant. In absence of the same, the appellant couldn't file their submission at the time of personal hearing. The appellant requested for some time but learned adjudicating authority has passed the impugned order which is not correct and tenable.
- The appellant stated that Show cause notice demanding service tax was issued without any verification, and without any proper opportunity of being explain the case. Further appellant has submitted that they have not suppressed any fact from the department and therefore extended period can't be invoked in their case.
- The appellant stated that the SCN can't be issued only on the basis of difference between ITR income and Service tax return without further verification. They have relied on the case law of M/s. Cosmic Dye chemical Vs Collector of Cen. Excise, Bombay [1995 (75) E.L.T. 721 (S.C.) wherein Hon'ble SC held that the burden is on the revenue to prove any of the above elements to uphold validity of an extended period of 5 years and detailed verification must be made prior to issuing SC and complete details be provided to the person in the SCN.
- The appellant stated that both the laws i.e. income tax and service tax are different and applicability of taxes are different so relying on information of one department and issue such notice is utterly incorrect. It is totally against the work method of department and internal guideline. Only writing a statement in show cause notice regarding suppression or mis- statment not make department stand for extended period. The notice itself is against department circular and guideline as state in quoted judgment.
- They have also relied on the case law of of M/s. Cosmic Dye chemical Vs Collector of Cen. Excise, Bombay (supra) and the board Circular no. 1053/02/2017-CX, F.No. 96/1/2017-CX.I dated 10th March, 2017 laying guidelines for issuance of SC. In the present case above are not being followed by the department.
- Further the appellant submitted that show cause notice is time barred as per the provision of Section 73 of Finance Act and the same is required to be dropped.

- The Appellant further submitted that during the F.Year 2015-16, they have earned income from trading i.e. sale of edible goods and the same is out of the purview of service tax as per Section 66D.He requested to allow their appeal.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 17.01.2024. Shri Arpan yagnik, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He reiterated submissions made in appeal memorandum. He submitted that the appellant is does trading of Khakhra and other food items. By mistake, the income from sale of the goods was shown under sale of services column of ITR. He also requested for 2 days time to file the additional submission which was received through mail dated 22.01.2024.

5. On going through the appeal memorandum, it is noticed that the impugned order was issued on 17.02.2023 and delivered on dated 17.02.2023 to appellant. The present appeal, in terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 was filed on 25.04.2023, i.e. after a delay of 08 days from the last date of filing of appeal. The appellant have along with appeal memorandum also filed an Application seeking condonation of delay stating that due to change in administration, there was a delay in obtaining details for the subject period thereby is a delay of 08 days in filing appeal which was required to be filed on or before 17.04.2023.

6. Before taking up the issue on merits, I proceed to decide the Application filed seeking condonation of delay. As per Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal should be filed within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority. Under the proviso appended to sub-section (3A) of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay or to allow the filing of an appeal within a further period of one month thereafter if, he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the period of two months. Considering the cause of delay given in application as genuine, I condone the delay of 08 days and take up the appeal for decision on merits.

7. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2015-16.

8. It is observed that main contention of the appellant is that they were engaged in sale of goods and not provided any services and therefore not required to pay any service tax. In the present case, as the appellant failed to furnish the required/supporting documents before the adjudicating authority and in absence of the same the adjudicating authority passed the impugned order ex-parte.

9. Now, as the written and verbal submission by the appellant has been made before me . As per documents submitted by the appellant, I find that the appellant was engaged in purchase and sale of the "Khakhra". It was also evident their P& L account wherein sizable amount was shown against Purchase. Further, as per ITR filed for the relevant period, they have mentioned "trading activity" against the "Nature of Business" column. They have also furnished sample purchase and sale invoices in support of their claim. In view of the above, it appears that they were engaged in trading activity and the same falls under the Negative list of service as per Section 66D(e) of the Finance Act, 1994,

So once the activity falls within the meaning of any service provided in service tax negative list, the activity is out of service tax applicability As they are engaged in sale/purchase i.e. trading activity. .

From the submission, it appears that The value is earned from Sale of food items during the subject period and while filing the Income Tax return it was wrongly shown as Sale of Services instead of Sale of Goods.

10. In view of the above discussion, I am of the considered view that the activity carried out by the appellant not liable to pay Service Tax during the FY 2015-16. Since the demand of Service Tax is not sustainable on merits, there does not arise any question of charging interest or imposing penalties in the case.

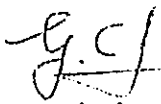

11. In view of above, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority confirming demand of Service Tax on the income received by the appellant during the FY 2015-16, is not legal and proper and deserve to be set aside. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

12. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
