BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE

M/s Dinesh Kumar (PAN-BDXPK2805G), Dinesh Road Carrier, First Floor, Shop No.18, Krishanpura, Viramgam, Ahmedabad-382150 (hereinafter referred to as the "said service provider") is un registered in Service Tax despite being providing service during the year 2015-16 and 2016-17.

2. On going through the data received from Income Tax Department (CBDT data) for the financial year 2015-16 for unregistered service provider, it was observed that the said service provider had shown "Gross receipt from Service" in their Income Tax Return, however, they had neither obtained valid service tax registration nor paid service tax. The details of the value shown in Income Tax return for financial year 2015-16 is as per table mentioned below :-

Financial Year	Basic value as per ITR/P&L A/c (Rs.)	Resultant Service tax not paid (Rs.)
2015-16	2,44,74,537/-	35,48,808/-
2016-17	3,65,77,950/-	54,86,693/-

3. Letters/email dated 07.04.2021 and 12.04.2021 was issued requesting clarification regarding the service turnover as mentioned in the above table with certified documentary evidences, but the said assesee had not replied the observations raised by the Range Office with supporting documents till the date of issuance of the show cause notice.

4. Un quantified demand at the time of issuance of show cause notice
Para 2.8 of the Master Circular No. 1053/02/2017-CX dated 10.03.2017 issue by the CBEC, New Delhi clarified that:

'2.8 Quantification of duty demanded: It is desirable that the demand is quantified in the SCN, however if due to some genuine grounds it is not possible to quantify the short levy at the time of issue of SCN, the SCN would not be considered as invalid. It would still be desirable that the principles and manner of computing the amounts due from the noticee are clearly laid down in this part of the SCN. In the case of Gwalior Rayon Mfg. (Wvg.) Co. Vs .UOI, 1982 (010) ELT 0844 (MP), the Madhya Pradesh High Court at Jabalpur affirms the same position that merely because necessary particulars have not been stated in the show cause notice, it could not be a valid ground for quashing the notice, because it is open to the petitioner to seek further particulars, if any, that may be necessary for it to show cause if the same is deficient.'

From the facts, it was noticed that the "Total Amount Paid/Credited Under Section 194C, 194H, 194I, 194J OR Sales/Gross Receipts From Services (From ITR)" for the period 2017-18 (upto June 2017) has not been disclosed by the Income Tax Department and the said service provider had also, even after the issuance of letters and reminders from the department, not submitted the same. Therefore, the assessable value for the year 2017-18 (upto June 2017) was not ascertainable at the time of issuance of this Show Cause Notice. Consequently, if any other amount is disclosed by the Income Tax Department or any other sources/agencies, against the said service provider, action will be initiated against the said service provider under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act 1994 read with para 2.8 of the Master Circular No. 1053/02/2017-CX dated 10.03.2017, in as much as the Service Tax liability arising in future, for the period 2017-18 (upto June 2017), will be recoverable from the said service provider accordingly.

6. As per Section 69 of the Finance Act, 1994 :-

(1) Every person liable to pay the service tax under this Chapter or the rules made thereunder shall, within such time and in such manner and in such form as may be prescribed, make an application for registration to the Superintendent of Central Excise.

(2) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify such other person or class of persons, who shall make an application for registration within such time and in such manner and in such form as may be prescribed.

In the instant case, it appeared that the said service provider had failed to obtain service tax registration and thereby violated the provisions of Section 69 of the Finance Act, 1994.

7. Further, as per Section 68 of the Finance Act, 1994 :

(1) Every person providing taxable service to any person shall pay service tax at the rate specified in section[66B] in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), in respect of [such taxable services as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette, the service tax thereon shall be paid by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed at the rate specified in section [66B] and all the provisions of this Chapter shall apply to such person as if he is the person liable for paying the service tax in relation to such service.

Provided that the Central Government may notify the service and the extent of service tax which shall be payable by such person and the provisions of this Chapter shall apply to such person to the extent so specified and the remaining part of the service tax shall be paid by the service provider

In this case, the said service provider had failed to pay the service tax on the taxable services provided by them and thereby contravened the provisions of Section 68 of the Finance Act, 1994.

8. In view of the above, it appeared that the said service provider had contravened the provisions of (1) Section 69 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 4 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994 and (2) Section 68 of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 6 of the Service Tax Rules, 1994 in as much as they failed to take service tax registration and pay service tax to the extent of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) as per their Income Tax Return/Form 26AS/P&L A/c.

9. It was noticed that at no point of time, the said service provider had disclosed or intimated to the department regarding receipt/providing of service, which has come to the notice of the department only after going through the CBDT data generated for the financial year 2015-16 AND 2016-17. The government has from the very beginning placed full trust on the service provider so far as service tax is concerned and accordingly measures like Self-assessments etc., based on mutual trust and confidence are in place. From the evidences, it appeared that the said service provider had knowingly suppressed the facts regarding receipt of providing of services by them. It appeared that the above act of omission on the part of the said service provider resulted into non payment of service tax on account of suppression of material facts and contravention of provisions of Finance Act, 1994 with intent to evade payment of service tax to the extent mentioned hereinabove. Hence, the same appeared to be recoverable from them under the provisions of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 by invoking proviso under sub section (1) of Section 73 along with interest thereof, at appropriate rate, under the provisions of Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994. Since the above act of omission on the part of the said service provider constitute offence of the nature specified under Section 68 and 69 of the Finance Act, 1994 it appeared that the said service provider had rendered themselves liable for penalty under Section 77(1)(a) and 78 of the Finance Act, 1994.

10. Therefore, a Show Cause Notice bearing F.No.STC/15-84/OA/2021-22 dated 23.04.2021 was issued to M/s Dinesh Kumar (PAN-BDXPK2805G), Dinesh Road Carrier, First Floor, Shop No.18, Krishanpura, Viramgam, Ahmedabad-382150 to show cause to the Additional Commissioner, CGST & CX, Ahmedabad North having office at 1 Floor, Custom House,. Navrangpura, Ahmedabad as to why:

(a) The demand of service tax to the extent of Rs. Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) not paid by them, should not be confirmed and recovered from them under the provisions of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994;

(b) Interest at appropriate rate should not be recovered from them under the provisions of Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;

(c) Penalty should not be imposed upon them under the provisions of Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994 for failure to take service tax registration.

(d) Penalty should not be imposed upon them under the provisions of Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 for non payment of service tax by knowingly suppressing the facts from the department with intent to evade the payment of service tax.

DEFENCE REPLY

12. In response to Show Cause Notice dated 23.04.2021, the said service provider has not filed any reply till date even though they are required to file reply within 30 days of the receipt of the SCN.

PERSONAL HEARING

13. Personal Hearing in this case has been granted to the said service provider on 20.12.21, 07.01.22, 09.02.22, 09.03.22, 26.04.22, 20.10.22, 11.11.22, 19.01.23, 15.02.23, 23.03.23 and 17.04.23. However the said P.H. letters were returned by the postal authorities with the remark "Incomplete Address". Therefore, another P.H. notice for 16.05..2023 was issued to the service provider and the same was forwarded to jurisdictional CGST office, Div-III, CGST & CE, Ahmedabad North. The jurisdictional Asstt. Commr vide his letter dated 04.07.23 submitted visit note dated 15.05.23. As per the said visit note the address of the premises of the said service provider was not found. Hence the same was served as per Section 37C(1)(c) of the Central Excise Act, 1944. As the service provider was given twelve opportunities of personal hearing, but they neither availed any of these opportunities, nor filed any submissions in response to SCN, I am therefore bound to decide the case on the basis of the available facts on record.

DISCUSSION AND FINDINGS

14. The proceedings under the provisions of the Finance Act, 1994 and Service Tax Rules, 1994 framed there under are saved by Section 174(2) of the Central Goods & Service Tax Act, 2017 and accordingly I am proceeding further.

15. I have carefully gone through the records of the case, SCN and I find that the issue to be decided is to whether the said service provider is liable to pay service tax amounting to Rs. 90,35,501/- for financial year 2015-16 and 2016-17 on account of income earned by providing taxable service but not obtaining service tax registration and not paying servie tax.

16. I have carefully gone through the records of the case and the facts available on record. It is noticed that nine opportunities of personal hearing were given to the said service provider, however, they had not availed the same to defend their case. They had also not filed any reply to SCN in this regard. Therefore, I am proceeding to decide the case ex-parte based upon the records available with this office.

17. In this connection, I find that Hon'ble Supreme Court, High Courts and Tribunals, in several judgments/decision, have held that ex-parte decision will not amount to violation of principles of Natural Justice, when sufficient opportunities for personal hearing have been given for defending the case.

In support of the same, I rely upon the following judgments/orders as under:-

a) Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in the case of UNITED OIL MILLS Vs. OLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS & C. EX., COCHIN reported in 2000 (124) E.L.T. 53 (Ker.), has observed that;

"Natural justice - Petitioner given full opportunity before Collector to produce all evidence on which he intends to rely but petitioner not prayed for any opportunity to adduce further evidence - Principles of natural justice not violated.

(Emphasis Supplied)"

b) Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta in the case of KUMAR JAGDISH CH. SINHA Vs. COLLECTOR OF CENTRAL EXCISE, CALCUTTA reported in 2000 (124) E.L.T. 118 (Cal.) in Civil Rule No. 128 (W) of 1961, deciding on 13-9-1963, has observed that;

"Natural justice - Show cause notice - Hearing - Demand - Principles of natural justice not violated when, before making the levy under Rule 9 of Central Excise Rules, 1944, the assessee was issued a show cause notice, his reply considered, and he was also given a personal hearing in support of his reply - Section 33 of Central Excises & Salt Act, 1944. - It has been established both in England and in India [vide N.P.T. Co. v. N.S.T. Co. (1957) S.C.R. 98 (106)], that there is no universal code of natural justice and that the nature of hearing required would depend, inter alia, upon the provisions of the statute and the rules made thereunder which govern the constitution of a particular body. It has also been established that where the relevant statute is silent, what is required is a minimal level of hearing, namely, that the statutory authority must 'act in good faith and fairly listen to both sides' [Board of Education v. Rice, (1911) A.C. 179] and, "deal with the question referred to them without bias, and give to each of the parties the opportunity of adequately presenting the case" [Local Govt. Board v. Arlidge, (1915) A.C. 120 (132)]. [para 16]

(Emphasis supplied)"

(c) Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in the case of SAKETH INDIA LIMITED Vs. UNION OF INDIA reported in 2002 (143) E.L.T. 274 (Del.)., has observed that:

"Natural justice - Ex parte order by DGFT - EXIM Policy - Proper opportunity given to appellant to reply to show cause notice issued by Addl. DGFT and to make oral submissions, if any, but opportunity not availed by appellant - Principles of natural justice not violated by Additional DGFT in passing ex parte order - Para 2.8(c) of Export-Import Policy 1992-97 - Section 5 of Foreign Trade (Development and Regulation) Act, 1992.

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(d) The Hon'ble CESTAT, Mumbai in the case of GOPINATH CHEM TECH. LTD Vs. COMMISSIONER OF CENTRAL EXCISE, AHMEDABAD-II reported in 2004 (171) E.L.T. 412 (Tri. - Mumbai), has observed that;

"Natural justice - Personal hearing fixed by lower authorities but not attended by appellant and reasons for not attending also not explained - Appellant cannot now demand another hearing - Principles of natural justice not violated. [para 5]

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(e) The Hon'ble Supreme court in the case of F.N. ROY Versus COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, CALCUTTA AND OTHERS reported in 1983 (13) E.L.T. 1296 (S.C.)., has observed as under:

"Natural justice — Opportunity of personal hearing not availed of—Effect — Confiscation order cannot be held mala fide if passed without hearing.

- If the petitioner was given an opportunity of being heard before the confiscation order but did not avail of, it was not open for him to contend subsequently that he was not given an opportunity of personal hearing before an order was passed. [para 28]

(Emphasis Supplied)"

(f) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of JETHMAL Versus UNION OF INDIA reported in 1999 (110) E.L.T. 379 (S.C.), has observed as under;

"7. Our attention was also drawn to a recent decision of this Court in A.K. Kripak v. Union of India - 1969 (2) SCC 340, where some of the rules of natural justice were formulated in Paragraph 20 of the judgment. One of these is the well known principle of audi alteram partem and it was argued that an ex parte hearing without notice violated this rule. In our opinion this rule can have no application to the facts of this case where the appellant was asked not only to send a written reply but to inform the Collector whether he wished to be heard in person or through a representative. If no reply was given or no intimation was sent to the Collector that a personal hearing was desired, the Collector would be justified in thinking that the persons notified did not desire to appear before him when the case was to be considered and could not be blamed if he were to proceed on the material before him on the basis of the allegations in the show cause notice. Clearly he could not compel appearance before him and giving a further notice in a case like this that the matter would be dealt with on a certain day would be an ideal formality."

18. I observe that after introduction of new system of taxation of services in negative list regime w.e.f. 01.07.2012, any activity carried out by a person for another person for a consideration is taxable service except those services specified in the negative list or exempt list by virtue of mega exemption notification or covered under exclusion clauses provided under the meaning of "service" as per Section 65B(44) of Finance Act, 1944.

The term "Service" has been defined under Section 65B (44) of the Finance Act, 1994 ('Act') as under:

"service" means any activity carried out by a person for another for consideration, and includes a declared service"

The term "Taxable Service" has been defined under Section 65B (51) of the Act as under:

"taxable service" means any service on which service tax is leviable under section 66B

Section 66B provides for levy of service tax, which reads as under:

SECTION [66B. Charge of service tax on and after Finance Act, 2012. —There shall be levied a tax (hereinafter referred to as the service tax) at the rate of [fourteen per cent.] on the value of all services, other than those services specified in the negative list, provided or agreed to be provided in the taxable territory by one person to another and collected in such manner as may be prescribed.

19. I find that prior to 01.07.2012 i.e. before introduction of a new system of taxation of services, the tax was levied on services of specified description only, as provided under Section 66 (in force at the material time) of the Act. In other words, the service tax was levied on services of specific description provided under the statute. The new taxation system of services had widened the scope of levy of tax on services without specific description of service. Accordingly, any activity carried out by a person for another person in lieu of the consideration is "service" and is liable to service tax unless it is covered under negative list of services or exempt services under mega exemption notification or covered under exclusion clauses of "service".

20. Further, I find that the said service provider is not registered with the department and is having PAN No.BDXPK2805G and are engaged in the business of providing taxable services without taking registration. In order to verify whether the said service provider had discharged their Service Tax liability properly or not, Jurisdictional Range Officer (JRO) had written letter/e-mail dated 07.04.21 AND 12.04.21 to the said service provider to provide the details of such services provided by them during the period from 2015-16 AND 2016-17. However, the said service provider neither submitted any details /documents explaining such difference nor responded to the letters in any manner. I find that the said service provider had neither taken service tax registration nor filed any ST-3 returns for the period 2015-16 AND 2016-17.

21. The Service tax payable of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) is arrived at on the basis of income mentioned in the ITR returns and Form 26AS filed by the said service provider with the Income Tax Department. As per the data, the total value as per Income Tax Return is Rs.2,44,74,537/- for the FY 2015-16 AND Rs.3,65,77,950/- for the FY 2016-17. By considering the said amount as taxable income, the service tax liability of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) is calculated as tabulated supra.

22. A taxable person is required to provide information/documents to the department as and when required. However, in this case the service provider failed to furnish/provide the required documents to prove that they are not liable to service tax being the service tax provider. The said service provider neither filed any reply to the show cause notice nor attended the personal hearings granted to them. In view of the above facts, it is proved that the said service provider may not have the data of the service receivers or they might have been try to avoid furnishing the details which may lead to proof that the service provider is liable to pays service tax.

23. Further, they had not claimed any exemption for the said charges collected and provisions of the 'taxable services' during the aforesaid period nor did they have sought any specific clarification from the jurisdictional Service Tax assessing authorities regarding the applicability of Service Tax on the services of the same covering the period of this notice. In view of the specific omissions and commissions as elaborated earlier, it is apparent that the service provider had deliberately suppressed the facts of provision of the Taxable Service by not filing ST-3 Returns during the period 2015-16 AND 2016-17. Consequently, this amounts to mis-declaration and willful suppression of facts with the deliberate intent to evade payment of Service Tax.

24. I further find that M/s Dinesh Kumar had contravened the following provisions of Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994 and the Service Tax Rules, 1994 with intent to evade payment of Service Tax in respect of "taxable Services" as defined under the provisions of Section 65B (51) of Finance Act, 1994, provided by them to their various service receivers during the period from 2015-16:-

(i) Section 69(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Noti.No.33/2012 dated 20.06.2012 in as much as they failed to obtain service tax registration.

(ii) Section 67 of the Finance Act, 1994 in as much as they failed to determine the correct value of taxable service provided by them as discussed above.

(iii) Failed to register with the Department and failed to declare correctly assessable value and pay the service tax due on the taxable services provided by them and to maintain records and furnish returns, in such form i.e.ST 3 and in such manner and at such frequency, as required under Section 70 of Finance Act, 1994 read with Rule 6 & 7 of the service Tax Rules, 1994.

(iv) Section 66B and Section 68 of Finance Act, 1994 and Rule 2&6 of Service Tax Rules, 1994 in as much as they failed to pay service tax correctly at the appropriate rate within the prescribed time in the manner and a the rate as provided under the said provision.

(v) Section 77 of Finance Act, 1994, in as much as failed to take registration.

(vi) All the above acts of contravention on the part of the said service provider appear to have been committed by way of suppression of facts with an intent to evade payment of service tax, and therefore, the said service tax not paid is required to be demanded and recovered from them under Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 by invoking extended period of five years. All these acts of contravention of the provisions of Section 68, and 70 of the Finance

Act, 1994 read with rule 6, and 7 of Service Tax Rules, 1994 appears to be publishable under the provisions of Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 as amended from time to time.

(vii) The said service provider is also liable to pay interest at the appropriate rates for the period from due date of payment of service tax till the date of actual payment as per the provisions of Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.

25. All the above acts of contravention of the various provisions of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time, and Rules framed there under, on the part of the said service provider has been committed by way of suppression of facts with an intent to evade payment of service tax and, therefore, the said service tax not paid is required to be demanded and recovered from them under the proviso to Section 73 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time, by invoking extended period of five years along with applicable interest. All these acts of contravention of the provisions of Section 67, 68 & 70 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time read with Rules 6 and 7 of the erstwhile Service Tax Rules, 1994 on part of the said service provider have rendered themselves liable for penal action under the provisions of Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended from time to time.

26. Further, as per Section 75 ibid, every person liable to pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of Section 68 ibid, or rules made there under, who fails to credit the tax or any part thereof to the account of the Central Government within the prescribed period is liable to pay the interest at the applicable rate of interest. Since the service provider has failed to pay their Service Tax liabilities in the prescribed time limit, I find that the assesse is liable to pay the said amount along with interest. Thus, the said Service Tax is required to be recovered from the service provider along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.

27. As far as imposition of penalty under Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994 is concerned, I find that the said service provider has failed to take service tax registration in accordance with the provisions of section 69 of the Finance Act, 1994. Hence, they have rendered themselves liable to penalty under Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994.

28. As far as imposition of penalty under Section 78 of Finance Act, 1994 is concerned, on perusal of the facts of the case and in view of the above discussion, I find that this is a fit case to levy penalty under section 78 of Financé Act, 1994 as they failed to pay the correct duty with the intend to evade the same. It is also a fact that they had deliberately not taken service tax registration and not filed ST-3 Returns in respect of the actual service provision rendered by them and service tax involved thereon, with intent to evade the proper payment of service tax on its due date, but on verification of data received from CBDT these facts would have not come to light. They have never informed the Service Tax department about the actual provision of taxable services so provided by them to their service recipients during the relevant time and they have also not filed ST-3 returns for the relevant period. The said service provider have thus, willfully suppressed the actual provision of taxable service provided by them with an intent to evade the Service Tax. It, thus, found that the service provider, as a service provider, deliberately suppressed the actual provision of the taxable services provided by them, from the Jurisdictional Service Tax Authority and failed to determine and pay the due Service Tax with an intention to evade payment of Service Tax in contravention of the various provisions of the Finance Act, 1994 and Rules made thereunder, as discussed hereinabove. Hence, I find that this is a fit case to impose penalty under Section 78 of Finance Act,1994.

29. In view of facts stated hereinabove, the Value of Services mentioned/declared in the income tax return for Financial Year F.Y. 2015-16 and 2016-17 is considered as taxable Value of Services provided and since the said service provider has not provided any details/data and the reasons for non-payment of service tax, therefore, the exact Service Tax liability cannot be adjudged. Therefore, for calculation and demand of the Service Tax under this notice, the value of services declared/mentioned in the income tax return filed by the said service provider has been considered for non-payment of total service tax, which comes to Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) (including cess).

30. The government has from the very beginning placed full trust on the service tax service provider so far as service tax is concerned and accordingly measures like self-assessments etc., based on mutual trust and confidence are in place. All these operate on the basis of honesty of the service tax service provider; therefore, the governing statutory provisions create an absolute liability, when any provision is contravened or there is a breach of trust, on the part of service tax service provider, no matter how innocently. From the information/data received from CBDT, it appeared that the service provider has not discharged service tax liability in spite of declaring before Income Tax Department. Non-payment of service tax is utter disregard to the requirements of law and the breach of trust deposed on them which is outright act of defiance of law by way of suppression, concealment & non-furnishing value of taxable service with intent to evade payment of service tax. All the above facts of contravention on the part of the service provider have been committed with an intention to evade the payment of service tax by suppressing the facts. Therefore, service tax of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 AND Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) not paid by the said service provider worked out in Tables supra is required to be recovered from them under Section 73 (1) of Finance Act, 1994 by invoking extended period of five years under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994.

31. Various Courts including the Apex Court have clearly laid down the principle that tax liability is a civil obligation and therefore, the intent to evade payment of tax cannot be established by peering into the minds of the tax payer, but has to be established through evaluation of tax behaviour. The said service provider deliberately not supplied their documents, the actual service provisions rendered by them and service tax involved thereon, with intent to evade the proper payment of service tax on its due date, but only after going through the CBDT data these facts had come to light.. Moreover, the Hon'ble apex court in the case of Rajasthan Spinning and Weaving Mills / High Court of Gujarat at Ahmedabad in Tax Appeal No. 338 of 2009 in the case of Commissioner of Central Excise, Surat-I Vs. Neminath Fabrics Pvt. Ltd. dated 22.04.2010 has made the following observations regarding applicability of the extended period in different situations.

> "11. A plain reading of sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act indicates that the provision is applicable in a case where any duty of excise has either not been levied/paid or has been short levied/short paid, or wrongly refunded, regardless of the fact that such non-levy etc. is on the basis of any approval, acceptance or assessment relating to the rate of duty or valuation under any of the provisions of the Act or Rules thereunder and at that stage it would be open to the Central Excise Officer, in exercise of his discretion to serve the show cause notice on the person chargeable to such duty within one year from the relevant date.
> 12. The Proviso under the said sub-section stipulates that in case of such non-levy, etc. of duty which is by reason of fraud, collusion, or any mis -statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any provisions of the Act or the rules made there under, the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act shall have effect as if the words one year have been substituted by the words five years.
> 13. The Explanation which follows stipulates that where service of notice has been stayed by an order of a Court, the period of such stay shall be excluded from computing the aforesaid period of one year or five years, as the case may be.
> 14. Thus the scheme that unfolds is that in case of non-levy where there is no fraud, collusion, etc., it is open to the Central Excise Officer to issue a show cause notice for recovery of duty of excise which has not been levied, etc. The show cause notice for recovery has to be served within one year from the relevant date. However, where fraud, collusion, etc., stands established the period within which the show cause notice has to be served stands enlarged by substitution of the words one year by the words five years. In other words the show cause notice for recovery of such duty of excise not levied etc., can be served within five years from the relevant date.
> 15. To put it differently, the proviso merely provides for a situation where under the provisions of sub-section (1) are recast by the legislature itself extending the period within which the show cause notice for recovery of duty of excise not levied etc. gets enlarged. This position becomes clear when one reads the Explanation in the said sub-section which only says that the period stated as to service of notice shall be excluded in computing the aforesaid period of one year or five years as the case may be.

16. The termini from which the period of one year or five years has to be computed is the relevant date which has been defined in sub-section (3)(ii) of section 11A of the Act. A plain reading of the said definition shows that the concept of knowledge by the departmental authority is entirely absent. Hence, if one imports such concept in sub-section (1) of section 11A of the Act or the proviso thereunder it would tantamount to rewriting the statutory provision and no canon of interpretation permits such an exercise by any Court. If it is not open to the superior court to either add or substitute words in a statute such right cannot be available to a statutory Tribunal.

17. The proviso cannot be read to mean that because there is knowledge the suppression which stands established disappears. Similarly the concept of reasonable period of limitation which is sought to be read into the provision by some of the orders of the Tribunal also cannot be permitted in law when the statute itself has provided for a fixed period of limitation. It is equally well settled that it is not open to the Court while reading a provision to either rewrite the period of limitation or curtail the prescribed period of limitation.

18. The Proviso comes into play only when suppression etc. is established or stands admitted. It would differ from a case where fraud, etc. are merely alleged and are disputed by an assessee. Hence, by no stretch of imagination the concept of knowledge can be read into the provisions because that would tantamount to rendering the defined term relevant date nugatory and such an interpretation is not permissible.

19. The language employed in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 11A, is clear and unambiguous and makes it abundantly clear that moment there is non-levy or short levy etc. of central excise duty with intention to evade payment of duty for any of the reasons specified thereunder , the proviso would come into operation and the period of limitation would stand extended from one year to five years. This is the only requirement of the provision. Once it is found that the ingredients of the proviso are satisfied, all that has to be seen as to what is the relevant date and as to whether the show cause notice has been served within a period of five years therefrom.

20. Thus, what has been prescribed under the statute is that upon the reasons stipulated under the proviso being satisfied, the period of limitation for service of show cause notice under sub-section (1) of section 11A, stands extended to five years from the relevant date. The period cannot by reason of any decision of a Court or even by subordinate legislation be either curtailed or enhanced. In the present case as well as in the decisions on which reliance has been placed by the learned advocate for the respondent, the Tribunal has introduced a novel concept of date of knowledge and has imported into the proviso a new period of limitation of six months from the date of knowledge. The reasoning appears to be that once knowledge has been acquired by the department there is no suppression and as such the ordinary statutory period of limitation prescribed under sub-section (1) of section 11A would be applicable. However, such reasoning appears to be fallacious in as much as once the suppression is admitted, merely because the department acquires knowledge of the irregularities the suppression would not be obliterated.

21. It may be noticed that where the statute does not prescribe a period of limitation, the Apex Court as well as this Court have imported the concept of reasonable period and have held that where the statute does not provide for a period of limitation, action has to be taken within a reasonable time. However, in a case like the present one, where the statute itself prescribes a period of limitation the question of importing the concept of reasonable period does not arise at all as that would mean that the Court is substituting the period of limitation prescribed by the legislature, which is not permissible in law.

22. The Apex Court in the case of Rajasthan Spinning and Weaving Mills (supra) has held thus :
"From sub-section 1 read with its proviso it is clear that in case the short payment, nonpayment, erroneous refund of duty is unintended and not attributable to fraud, collusion or any willful mis -statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any of the provisions of the Act or of the rules made under it with intent to evade payment of duty then the Revenue can give notice for recovery of the duty to the person in default within one year from the relevant date (defined in sub-section 3). In other words, in the absence of any element of deception or malpractice the recovery of duty can only be for a period not exceeding one year. But in case the non-payment etc. of duty is intentional and by adopting any means as indicated in the proviso then the period of notice and a priory the period for which duty can be demanded gets extended to five years."

23. This decision would be applicable on all fours to the facts of the present case, viz. when non-payment etc. of duty is intentional and by adopting any of the means indicated in the proviso, then the period of notice gets extended to five years."

In view of the above facts, the extended period is correctly invoked while issuing the Show Cause Notice

32. On perusal of para 4 & 5 of the SCN, I find that the levy of service tax for FY 2017-18 (upto June 2017), which was not ascertainable at the time of issuance of the subject SCN, if the same was to be disclosed by the Income Tax department or any other source/agencies, against the said service provider, action was to be initiated against service provider under the proviso to Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 read with Para 2.8 of the Master Circular No. 1053/02/2017—CX dated 10.03.2017 and the service tax liability was to be recoverable from the service provider accordingly. I, however, do not find any charges levelled for demand for 2017-18 (upto June 2017) in charging part of the SCN. On perusal of SCN, I further find that the SCN has not questioned the taxability on any income other than the income shown in the income tax return. I therefore refrain from discussing the taxability on income other than the income shown in the income tax return.

33. In view of the above discussion and findings, I pass the following order:-

ORDER

(i) I confirm the demand of Service Tax of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rs.35,48,808/- for FY 2015-16 and Rs.54,86,693/- for FY 2016-17) (including cess) (Rupees Ninety Lakh Thirty Five Thousand Five Hundred One Only), which was not paid/short paid during the Financial Year 2015-16 and 2016-17 as per Table supra and order to recover the same from them under proviso to Sub-section (1) of Section 73 of Finance Act,1994;

(ii) I confirm the demand of Interest at the appropriate rate and order to recover the same from them for the period of delay of payment of service tax mentioned at (i) above under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994;

(iii) I impose penalty of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) on M/s Dinesh Kumar under Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994.

(iv) I impose Penalty of Rs.90,35,501/- (Rupees Ninety Lakh Thirty Five Thousand Five Hundred One Only), under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994, as amended. I further order that in terms of Section 78 (1) of the Finance Act, 1994 if M/s Dinesh Kumar pays the amount of Service Tax as determined at Sl. No. (i) above and interest payable thereon at (ii) above within thirty days of the date of communication of this order, the amount of penalty liable to be paid by M/s Dinesh Kumar shall be twenty-five per cent of the penalty imposed subject to the condition that such reduced penalty is also paid within the period so specified.

34. Accordingly the Show Cause Notice bearing F.No. STC/15-84/OA/2021-22 dated 23.04.2021 is disposed off.
