अपीलियआदेश / ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s Mafatlal Harjivandas Prajapati, 62, Ravjikaka Nagar, Near Ranchoodnagar, Jagatpur, Chandlodiya, Ahmedabad – 382481 (hereinafter referred to as 'the appellant') against Order in Original No. CGST/WT07/HG/964/2022-23 dated 10.03.2023 [hereinafter referred to as 'impugned order'] passed by the Assistant Commissioner, CGST & CEX, Division-VII, Ahmedabad North Commissionerate [hereinafter referred to as 'adjudicating authority'].

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant were not registered under Service Tax and were holding PAN No. AGVPP1742P. As per information received from the Income Tax Department, it was observed that during the period F.Y. 2014-15, the appellant had earned substantial service income by way of providing taxable services, but had neither obtain Service Tax Registration nor paid Service Tax thereon. Accordingly, in order to seek information, letters were issued to the appellant calling for the details of services provided during the period. But they didn't submit any reply. Further, the jurisdictional officers considering the services provided by the appellant as taxable determined the Service Tax liability on the basis of value of 'Sales of Services' under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR) and Form 26AS for the relevant period.

3. The appellant was issued Show Cause Notice No. CGST/A'BAD-NORTH/Div-VII/AR-IV/TPD/UNREG 15-16/7/20-21 dated 23.12.2020 (in short SCN) proposing to demand and recover Service Tax amounting to Rs.5,85,355/- under proviso to Section 73 of Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Act. The SCN also proposed imposition of penalty under Section 77(1)(a), Section 77(1)(c), Section 77(2) and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994. It was also proposed that Service Tax liability not paid during the F.Y. 2015-16 to 2017-18 (upto June 2017), ascertained in future due to non-availability of pertaining data.

4. The SCN was adjudicated ex-parte vide the impugned order wherein :

- Service Tax demand of Rs.5,85,355/- was confirmed under Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994 along with interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994.

- Penalty of Rs.10,000/- was imposed under Section 77(1)(a) & Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994.
- Penalty of Rs.10,000/- was imposed under Section 77(2) of the Finance Act, 1994.
- Penalty of Rs.5,85,355/- was imposed under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994 with option for reduced penalty in terms of clause (ii).

5. Aggrieved by the impugned order, the appellant has preferred this appeal on following grounds:

- The appellant stated that the impugned Order was passed against the appellant without providing any opportunity to be heard or file a reply to the Show Cause Notice, thereby violating the principles of natural justice.
- The Appellant contended that appellant did not receive any communication from respondent department, might be due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The non- receipt of the Show Cause Notice and non-participation in the Personal Hearing due to the pandemic should be considered as reasonable grounds for the Appellant's inability to defend their case. In this regard, the Appellant relies on Canara Bank vs. Debasis Das [(2003) 4 SCC 557], where the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the principles of natural justice must be adhered to in proceedings before quasi- judicial authorities.
- They further stated that the impugned order is based on the assumption and presumption as it can be seen in para 7 of impugned order, it is mentioned that service tax payable was calculated on the basis value of "sales of services under Sales/Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)" or "value of TDS" as provided by the Income Tax Department for the financial year 2014-15. Whereas the data given in table below reflect the details of year 2015-16 and 2016-17.
- It is evident from the above that the impugned order has been issued without thoroughly examining the facts of the case facts. Specifically, when confirming the demand for the period 2014-15, calculations should have been based solely on the relevant data for FY 2014-15. However, the impugned order calculated and confirmed the demand for 2014-15 using data from the years 2015-16 and 2016-17. This approach is unsustainable, and as such, the impugned OIO merits reconsideration and should be set aside on this ground alone.

6. Personal Hearing in the case was held on 18.01.2024. Shri Naresh Satwani, Tax Consultant, appeared for PH virtually on behalf of the appellant. He stated that they have not received the SCN and also the order has been passed ex-parte. They requested to set aside the OIO and remand back the matter in the interest of natural justice.

7. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum, oral submissions made during personal hearing and the facts available on records. The issue before me for decision in the present appeal is whether the demand for Service Tax amounting to Rs.5,85,355/- confirmed along with interest and penalties vide the impugned order in the facts and circumstances of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period F.Y. 2014-15.

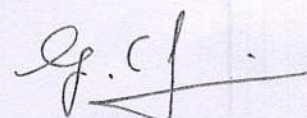

8. I find that it has been recorded at Para 17 of the impugned order that the opportunity of personal hearing was granted on 15.09.2022, 19.09.2022, 21.09.2022, 11.11.2022 & 27.02.2023, but the appellant had neither filed defense submission nor availed of the opportunity of personal hearing. Thereafter, the case was adjudicated ex-parte.

9. Examination the para 7 of the impugned order, I find that the SCN and the impugned order were issued without any verification of the facts, and even without paying regard to the details of obtaining the taxable value of the disputed year & service tax rate. I also find that the appellant requested extension twice for submission is noted in paragraph 17, which calls into question their claim that they never received the SCN and personal hearing letter. However, they didn't even get an opportunity to attend the personal hearing & submit their defense submission before the adjudicating authority, therefore, I am of the considered view that it would be in the fitness of things in the interest of natural justice that the case is to be remanded back to the adjudicating authority to evaluate facts of the case and the appellant's claim following their submission, adjudicate the matter accordingly.

10. Accordingly, the impugned order is set aside and the case remanded back to the adjudicating authority for adjudication afresh. The appeal filed by the appellant is allowed by way of remand.

11. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है।
The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
