ORDER-IN-APPEAL

The present appeal has been filed by M/s. Keshavdas Gyanchand Sukhvani, A-41, Ankur Society, Krishnanagar Highway, P.O. Saijpur Bog, Ahmedabad-382345 (hereinafter referred to as "the appellant") against Order-in-Original No. 638/AC/Demand/22-23 dated 23.03.2023 (hereinafter referred to as "the impugned order") passed by the Assistant Commissioner, Central GST, Division -I, Ahmedabad North (hereinafter referred to as "the adjudicating authority").

2. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that the appellant are holding PAN No. AFUPS7030P. On scrutiny of the data received from the Central Board of Direct Taxes (CBDT) for the FY 2015-16, it was noticed that the appellant had earned an income of Rs. 39,40,837/- during the F.Y. 2015-16, which was reflected under the heads "Sales / Gross Receipts from Services (Value from ITR)" filed with the Income Tax department. Details are as under:

F.Y.	Gross Receipt from sales of services(as per ITR)	Service tax not/Short paid
2015-16	39,40,837/-	5,71,421/-

Accordingly, it appeared that the appellant had earned the said substantial income by way of providing taxable services but has neither obtained Service Tax registration nor paid the applicable service tax thereon. The appellant were called upon to submit copies of Balance Sheet, Profit & Loss Account, Income Tax Return, Form 26AS, for the said period. However, the appellant had not responded to the letters issued by the department.

2.1 Subsequently, the appellant were issued a Show Cause Notice No. AR-III/Keshavdas/S.T./Un.Reg./2015-16 dated 09.06.2021 demanding Service Tax amounting to Rs. 5,71,421/- for the period FY 2015-16, under provisions of Section 73(1) of the Finance Act, 1994. The SCN also proposed recovery of interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994; and imposition of penalties under Section 77(1),77(2) and Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994..

2.2 The Show Cause Notice was adjudicated, ex-parte, vide the impugned order by the adjudicating authority wherein the demand of Service Tax amounting to Rs. 5,71,421/- was confirmed under proviso to Sub-Section (1) of Section 73 of the Finance Act, 1994 along with Interest under Section 75 of the Finance Act, 1994 for the period FY 2015-16. Further, (i) Penalty of Rs. 5,71,421/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 78 of the Finance Act, 1994; (ii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(a) of the Finance Act, 1994; and (iii) Penalty of Rs. 10,000/- was imposed on the appellant under Section 77(1)(c) of the Finance Act, 1994.

3. Being aggrieved with the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, the appellant have preferred the present appeal on the following grounds:

- The appellant submitted that they were a trader and filed various submission against the service tax notices conveying the department about their activity. Trading activity is covered under Noti. No. 19/2015-ST dated 05.06.2021. Therefore they did not get registered with service tax department. As they filed Rectification application against the impugned OIO on various grounds before the adjudicating authority and the same was not disposed in time due to which, there was a delay of 08 days in filing appeal.
The appellant submitted that they are not engaged in providing service. The show cause notice is time barred and issued only on the basis of income tax return without having any material to prove suppression of the facts.
- The appellant stated that Show cause notice demanding service tax was issued without any verification. Further appellant has submitted that they have not suppressed any fact from the department.
- The Appellant further submitted that during the F. Year 2015-16, they have earned income from trading of goods and the same is out of the purview of service tax as per Section 66D. He requested to allow their appeal.

4. Personal hearing in the case was held on 06.03.2024. Shri Narendra Tekwani, Chartered Accountant, appeared on behalf of the appellant for personal hearing. He stated that his client sells textile goods/cloths. By mistake while filing ITR the turnover has been mentioned as sale of service instead of sale of goods. Since it is sale of goods, they are not liable to pay service tax.

5. On going through the appeal memorandum, it is noticed that the impugned order was issued on 22.03.2023 and delivered on dated 29.03.2023 to appellant. The present appeal, in terms of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 was filed on 05.06.2023, i.e. after a delay of 08 days from the last date of filing of appeal. The appellant have along with appeal memorandum also filed an Application seeking condonation of delay stating that they filed Rectification application against the impugned OIO on various grounds before the adjudicating authority and the same was not disposed in time due to which, there was a delay of 08 days in filing appeal which was required to be filed on or before 28.05.2023.

6. Before taking up the issue on merits, I proceed to decide the Application filed seeking condonation of delay. As per Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, an appeal should be filed within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of the decision or order passed by the adjudicating authority. Under the proviso appended to sub-section (3A) of Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994, the Commissioner (Appeals) is empowered to condone the delay or to allow the filing of an appeal within a further period of one month thereafter if, he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the period of two months. Considering the cause of delay given in application as genuine, I condone the delay of 08 days and take up the appeal for decision on merits.

7. I have carefully gone through the facts of the case, grounds of appeal, submissions made in the Appeal Memorandum and documents available on record. The issue to be decided in the present appeal is whether the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority, confirming the demand of service tax against the appellant along with interest and penalty, in the facts and circumstance of the case, is legal and proper or otherwise. The demand pertains to the period FY 2015-16.

8. It is observed that main contention of the appellant is that they were engaged in sale of goods and not provided any services and therefore not required to pay any service tax. While going through the submission, from the ITR filed for the F.Y. 2015-16 it is found that they have shown "Trading" as nature of business. Figures in purchase, sale and closing stock also reveal the same in the ITR and the P&L statement for the relevant period. From the above it is clear that they were engaged in trading activity and the same falls under the Negative list of service as per Section 66D(e) of the Finance Act, 1994,

From the submission, it is seen that the value shown as sale of service is earned from Sale of goods during the subject period and while filing the Income Tax return it was wrongly shown as Sale of Services instead of Sale of Goods.

9. In view of the above discussion, I am of the considered view that the activity carried out by the appellant not liable to pay Service Tax during the FY 2015-16. Since the demand of Service Tax is not sustainable on merits, there does not arise any question of charging interest or imposing penalties in the case.

10. In view of above, I hold that the impugned order passed by the adjudicating authority confirming demand of Service Tax on the income received by the appellant during the FY 2015-16, is not legal and proper and deserve to be set aside. Accordingly, I set aside the impugned order and allow the appeal filed by the appellant.

11. अपील कर्ता द्वारा दर्ज की गई अपील का निपटारा उपरोक्त तरीके से किया जाता है ।

The appeal filed by the appellant stands disposed of in above terms.
